SHOOTING STAR'S STAKE.

The first two weeks' summer meeting of the Chicago Jockey Club, which is being run off at the Harlem race track, opened auspiciously yesterday with a large gathering on hand. The weather was clear and sunshiny, but the track, owing to the recent heavy rains, was holding and heavy, being best along the inside rail, especially in the last quarter.

The soggy condition of the course was responsible for copious scratching, especially in the feature event of the day, The Competition Stakes, a dash of five and a half furlongs for two-year-olds, with $1,500 added. Of the eleven originally carded to start seven were scratched, and Esherin was an added starter, making a field of five. Watkins Overton, on his recent good showing, was made a 6 to 5 shot, but ran a dull race and had all he could do to finish third. The winner turned up in Shooting Star, which moved up fast after the first three furlongs had been run, and, getting a lucky opening at the head of the stretch, came through with a rush, winning easily by one and a half lengths from Esherin, which beat Watkins Overton a length for second place. Esherin finished strongly and was easily the best of all but the winner. Watkins Overton tired badly when the pinch came. Tom Cogan showed a sharp turn of speed, but was well beaten when a furlong out and simply could not concede the weight. Will Shelly ran well for only a half mile. The stake was worth $2,070 to the winner.

The steeplechase had a ludicrous turn to it, Icen winning simply because all the other starters fell. Icen was hopelessly beaten off when approaching the ninth jump, but at this obstacle Queenship, Dagmar and Helen Paxton all fell, leaving him a virtual walkover. The jockeys on Dagmar and Helen Paxton remounted and rode them out for second and third money, finishing in the order named. Farrell fell over the fifth jump and Globe II. in stumbling over him unseated his jockey. Queenship hurt her back in the fall and may have to be destroyed.

The most exciting finish of the day occurred in the fifth race when Lucien Appleby beat Star Cotton, the outsider in the betting, a head on the post in a drive. Lucien Appleby was given a splendid ride, and it was really this that won the race. Star Cotton assumed the lead after the first half had been run and held it until just after turning for home, where Lucien Appleby moved up on even terms, the two fighting it out to the wire. Artna finished third six lengths back. She appeared to have a chance when a furlong out, but tired badly when the pinch came. Odnor was a keen contender for about seven furlongs. Favonius ran a dull race falling away well beaten after seven furlongs had been run.

The day's opener proved an easy thing for Duellist, which moved up fast on the leader, Lady Idris, when entering the last quarter, and assuming command next to the inside rail, was never afterward in trouble, winning easily by three and one-half lengths from Lady Idris, which finished the same distance in front of Scorpio for second place. Scorpio showed speed for a half mile, but tired rapidly in the last quarter.

Gregor K. is certainly a good mud track youngster, winning the second race, a dash of five furlongs, with consummate ease from Topsoil by one and a half lengths. The latter was urged out all through the last quarter and had to be hustled in the last eighth to beat out Courage a length for second place. The latter showed early speed and a liking for the soft going. The race was strictly a three-horse affair throughout.

Of a field of twelve mediocre three-year-olds in the sixth race Dodie S. proved to be far the best. She ran lapped on The Rabbit for a half mile and then came away with a bound, winning in a canter by eight lengths from Lucy Locket, which beat Belle of Minco one for second place.]

Ravensbury won the last race with ease by two and a half lengths from Ben Chance with Hayward Hunter an indifferent third. Beauty Book fell just before entering the last quarter.

The track was drying out fast but will be slow and lumpy today at the best.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

Jockey Taylor, who rode Farrell in the steeplechase, sustained injuries when the horse fell that may keep him out of the saddle forever. Several doctors who examined closely into the jockey's condition stated that he had become paralyzed in his lower body. Taylor was taken to the Garfield Park Sanitarium, where he will be under the care of Dr. Harvey.

The following rule was yesterday adopted by the Chicago Jockey Club: "In all stakes where a horse or horses be added to the field, the positions of such horses at the post shall be determined by lot, without disturbing the relative positions of the other starters as assigned over night."

Jockey J. Baker, who rode Beauty Book in the closing race, appeared to have been seriously hurt when his mount fell, but beyond a shaking up it was found that he had sustained no injury.

Jockey Hoar was fined $25 by starter Holtman for allowing his mount to break through the barrier in the second race. Jockey Ezell was suspended for three days by the starter for the same offense.

Jockey Mathews was painfully injured about the back and sustained a sprained ankle when he tumbled off Ice King in the first race. He was later taken to the Garfield Park Sanitarium. Ice King was running in a contending position at the stretch head when his right fore tendon gave away and he stumbled, throwing Mathews. In an attempt to regain his feet the jockey was struck by one of the horses that had been outrun in the early stages.

To the spectators in the stand it looked as if Queenship had broken her neck when she took the cropper at the Liverpool jump. Time and again she attempted to rise from the ground, but in each instance fell back with a groan. Dr. Keough was sent for by Mr. Tompkins to examine the mare with a view to her destruction if she was fatally injured. Dr. Keough reported, however, that there was a chance of saving the mare, as in his opinion she had only wrenched her back and probably some muscles, but as for sustaining any fractures he was almost sure she had not. Mr. Tompkins later telephoned for an ambulance to assist in removing the mare to the stable. Jockey Johnston stated that Queenship swerved in going over the jump, and before she could firmly plant her feet in the ground after clearing the obstacle Dagmar had struck and rolled over her. Helen Paxton also struck her when she got in the mix-up.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

According to the figures given out by the Coney Island Jockey Club, this year's Futurity will be worth almost $60,000, or nearly twice as much money as Yankee won last year. One hundred and seventy-six eligibles remain, including the Keene Stable's Hurst Park, Injunction, Whitechapel, Dalesman, Duster, Prediction, Rigodon, Futurita, Biturica and others; the Haggin Stable's Sir Voorhies, Miss Dorothy, Star and Garter, Amoryllis and Teddy Mack; August Belmont's Mizzen, Fire Eater, Lord of the Vale and Sailmaker; W. C. Whitney's Miss Hamburg, Golden Girl, Payne and a filly by Meddler—Lady Stylites; Harry Payne Whitney and H. B. Duryea's Irish Lad, S. S. Brown's River Pirate, Blue Ribbon and Scioto; John E. Madden's Old Lady, Merry Reel, Busy Maid and Dauphin; G. B. Morris' Artvis and Gold Van; the Fleischmanns' Hurstbourne, Wax Candle, Amorous and Irascible; Clarence H. Mackay's Mexican, Acefull and Skilful; J. G. Follansbee's Daisy Green; A. Featherstone's Mesmer, Mary Street and Pebble; F. R. Hitchcock's

Sergeant, Deimel & Dwyer's Africander, N. Bennington's Lady Albercraft and Bensonhurst, T. C. McDowell's Woodlake and John Sanford's Canajoharie.

The "talent" is $500,000 ahead of the layers up to date on the New York racing season of 1902. This is the consensus of opinion of leading experts on racetrack speculation, not based on rumors of big individual winnings and losses, but on absolute knowledge of the finances of the betting ring.

About fifty bookmakers have had their bank rolls wiped out by the success of the public in picking winners. At the opening of the season there were 110 layers in the regular betting ring, and the number has now been reduced to seventy-five. Twenty of the 100 layers who began operations in the field last spring have been forced to quit.

The average losses of the regular layers up to date are estimated at $4,000 each and of the outsiders at $1,000, making up the total of $500,000, which the public has won by backing its judgment.

The betting this year has been the heaviest ever known on the eastern tracks. The amount of money which changes hands daily is about $300,000, being an average of about $3,000 for each of the regular layers and $1,000 for each book in the field. On days of big stake events these figures are doubled or trebled, and on Suburban Day they were more than quadrupled.

Jockey Henry Spencer has announced definitely that he will ride in Austria next season. The contract for him to sign is on the way. The owner of the stable is Baron Harkanyi, a millionaire of Austria, and the contract was mailed from Budapest recently. The salary the jockey will receive is $10,000, and, together with expenses and outside mounts, he is assured of an income of over $15,000. He will have to report about March 1, when the Austrian season opens.

The horses of J. G. Follansbee and the Columbia Stable, as well as some smaller consignments, left Sheephead Bay Sunday morning for Saratoga. The stable of Clarence H. Mackay, including Mexican, winner of the first half of the Produce Stakes, it had been intended should be shipped to the Spa July 30. Mr. Mackay sailed for Paris Saturday. Owing to the death of the elder Mackay it is quite likely the Mackay colors will not be seen on the turf any more this season.

The Buffalo Derby of $8,000, to be run during the inaugural meeting of the Buffalo Racing Association, has received the following among its entries: St. Barnaby, Aladdin, Little Scout, Terra Firma, Runnels, Charley Grainger, Wyeth, Red Robe, Crimean, Circus, Sombra, Homestead, Dubious, Belle's Commoner, Flora Pomona, Dewey, Otis, Waswift and Picquart.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The stallion Bel Demonio, by Uucas—Bella Donna, has been purchased by J. B. Ewing from D. Higgins of Montreal, Canada, and will become one of the sires at Willamette Stud. He is finely bred and a half brother to Don d'Oro.

Thirty-four bookmakers had their slates up in the big ring. In addition to these there were three field books and one combination book which catered to the wants of those who were speculatively inclined.

W. H. Landeman's crack four-year-old, Herando, arrived in Lexington from New York last week. He fell lame while being prepared for the Suburban and will be in retirement for some time.

Jockey Mathews is reported as having bet $200 on Ice King. He was to have ridden Gregor K. which won the second race, but after his fall Jockey Ranch was substituted.

Jacobson, Chicago. It was a misprint. The place price against Favonius was 1 to 6.

HARLEM STAKE ENTRIES.

Entries for the ten additional stakes of the Harlem Jockey Club that closed last week show that with a season of reasonably fair weather the best racing of the year is yet to come. Every performer with pretensions to good class is engaged in the fixtures yet to be decided; every stable of note is represented and in numbers the nominations show a greater increase than were ever recorded for any stakes at any course. The ten summer and fall events drew last year a total of 317 nominations, while the same stakes this year attracted a list of 661 entries, an increase of more than 100 per cent. This remarkable circumstance indicates the eagerness of owners to offer their best for the sport that is so generously managed and patronized in Chicago this year. The two steeplechase stakes this year gathered seventy-nine nominations against forty-three a year ago, while the eight races on the flat average seventy-three each now as against thirty-four last summer. By the same token the class of racing as compared to last season should improve in proportion, the material being on hand and engaged. The following comparative table is of interest:

Entries 1901.	Entries 1902.
Tecumseh Handicap.....	40
Maywood Handicap.....	38
Prairie State Stakes.....	36

STEEPLECHASES.	Dist.	Added.	Value
Golf Handicap.....	Short Course.	$1,000	$1,750
September Handicap.....	Short Course.	1,000	1,850

Seventeen Stakes.....$28,500 $52,800

The heaviest nominators for the ten new stakes are: E. Corrigan, 47; S. C. Hildreth, 43; M. H. Tichenor & Co., 26; C. R. Ellison, 19; G. C. Bennett & Co., 18; P. Dunne, 18; J. B. Raspass, 17; F. Cook, 16; A. Simons, 13; B. Schreiber, 13; C. T. Boots, 12; T. H. Ryan, 11; J. W. Schorr, 11; Burns & Waterhouse, 11; J. U. Strode, 10. The stakes yet to be run at Harlem show the following high-class horse among those engaged:

FOUR-YEAR-OLDS AND UPWARD.	Dist.	Added.	Value

MISHAPS OF STARTING.

The following respecting some peculiar starts on the English turf are by Vigilant in the Pink 'Un: "It is not often that the stewards of a race meeting are troubled as they were at Ascot. It is easy to sit at home, consider the evidence, read up the precedents and then form judgment; but it is a very different thing when you have to act upon a difficult question amidst considerable excitement, without time to search for what has gone before, and give a prompt and correct decision, on which perhaps tens of thousands of pounds are depending. This difficulty more particularly arose in connection with the start for the Wokingham Stakes. It was one of the fiascos of Ascot, and, naturally, the starting gate was held responsible for it, more especially by those who are not aware that the same fiascos have arisen with the flag. When a starter is consulted, and he pronounces the start to have been good, the stewards, under similar circumstances, have almost invariably acted upon that. Not that even in this the starter's word is law. For instance, in connection with the Derby of 1862 the starter declared the start to be a good one, but Lord Stamford objected to it on the ground that it had taken place inside the starting post, and the objection was overruled simply because it had not been lodged in time. But for that, Admiral Rous declared that either the race must have been declared void or run over again. In the case of the Wokingham Stakes, only part of the field got away, or could get away, and, in our opinion, Mr. Coventry ought at once to have declared to the stewards that the gate had not worked properly. For the St. Leger of 1823 there were twenty-seven runners, and under the impression that a start had taken place, the whole lot, bar four insignificant animals, ran the course, and after a fine finish Carnival beat Barefoot by a head. The starter then declared that the lot had gone off without his signal, on which the stewards ordered that the race should be run over again. This time fifteen of the original starters did not take part in the race, and Barefoot, who had come in second on the first occasion, won.

"The Wokingham Stakes fiasco had more particularly its parallel in the Chesterfield Stakes at Newmarket in 1839, and the action of the stewards on that occasion favors the position taken up by Mr. Leopold Rothschild. One of the competitors for the Chesterfield Stakes was Crucifix, the property of Lord George Bentinck, who originated the flag system. After many false starts, there was some bungle with the flag, the same as at Ascot with the gate, and, as a result, all the lot with one exception ran, and for the only time in her life Crucifix came in second. Before the horses got back to the weighing stand it was reported that the flag had not been down, and that it was 'no start.' Captain Rous immediately proceeded to the starting post, and on inquiry ascertained from Perren that, although he had given the word, it was no start, for that Merle had bolted instantly, and had not got off, for which reason he had not dropped his flag! Two or three gentlemen declared that the flag up the course was down, but was instantly raised again. On this Captain Rous decided that it was 'no race,' and the same lot went to the post as before, bar Merle, which had caused all the trouble. In the first instance odds of 7 to 4 were laid on Crucifix, but for the second heat 2 to 1 was laid against her, and she won in a canter, Iris, which had won the first heat, this time taking second place. Crucifix, it should be remarked, won both the July Stakes and the Chesterfield.

"One of the most extraordinary instances we ever knew of a 'no race,' but not having any bearing on the Wokingham Stakes incident, arose in connection with the Lewes Handicap of 1867. The field was as good and large as nowadays we see for the Cesarewitch, seeing that such horses as Julius, Rama, Pearl Diver, Mandrake, Dr. Syntax, Knight Errant, Endsleigh, and Miss Havelock, ran for it. We were present on the first day of the meeting, but unfortunately not on the second, but we had all the particulars from an eye-witness, who declared that half the onlookers were under the impression that they had 'got 'em agin' when they saw for the same race three different finishes with three different sets of horses. In the first batch that came up the well-known Mandrake was first, Dr. Syntax second and Knight Errant third. Scarcely were their numbers hoisted than up came the second lot, and the puzzled judge placed Pearl Diver first, Julius second and Rama third, and their numbers were also hoisted. Scarcely had he left the box than a third lot came, with Pirate Chief first, Miss Havelock second, and Maid of Masham filly third, but having left the box he did not take official cognizance of this placing. It transpired that after the field had gone some distance Endsleigh, which was leading, had gone the wrong course, on which several of the jockeys pulled up, and retracing their steps, went another course. Killick, however, who was a lad of Drewett's, whose horses were trained on the Lewes Downs, saw that they had not gone back far enough, and he with two or three others got into the right track and Pirate Chief, which he was riding, would have got the race had the judge been in the box. The final race was won by Pearl Diver, with Mandrake second and Vixen third; Julius, Rama and several others not going to the post the second time."

Winner—B. g. by Oddfellow—Ella Duke (trained by R. E. Colston).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Duellist moved up fast after the first three furlongs had been run, and, taking the good going next to the inside rail in the last quarter, easily outlasted the field. Lady Idris, off flying, showed much speed, revelled in the going and was much the best of the others. Scorpion ran a dull race and tired rapidly in the last quarter. Corrigan was never a serious contender and showed scant speed. Ice King broke down just before turning for home, throwing jockey Mathews.

Scratched—33675 Elsie L., 93; 33795 Martin Burke, 93; 33253 B. G. Fox, 104; 32546 Silurian, 104; (33756) Burnie Buntin, 105; 29358 Bummer, 109; 33602 Vulcan, 112.

Winner—B. g. by Phoenix—Kola (trained by W. M. Hedges).
Went to post at 3:05. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Gregor K. was much the best, in going to his liking and the result was never in doubt. Topsoil was the best of the others. He was under keen pressure all through the last quarter. Courage showed much speed, but tired fast in the last eighth. The others were never serious contenders.

Winner—Ch. g. by Huron—Kitty C. (trained by G. Lanka).
Went to post at 3:30. Off at the first break to a fair start. Won in a canter because all the others fell. Icení was hopelessly beaten off approaching the ninth jump, but Queenship, Dagmar and Helen Paxton fell over the jump and he had a virtual walkover. The jockeys remounted Dagmar and Helen Paxton and rode out the race for second and third money. Farrell fell at the fifth jump and Globe II. stumbled over him, throwing his jockey. Queenship fell and wrenched her back.

Overweights—Queenship, 1 pound.

Winner—Ch. c. by Star Ruby—Olive (trained by C. B. Reid).
Went to post at 4:00. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Shooting Star was lucky to get an opening at the head of the stretch, next to the inside rail, Tom Cogan swinging just wide enough to let him through. He finished strongly and would probably have won at any event. Escherin moved up fast in the last eighth and finished strongly. Watkins Overton hung badly when the pinch came. Tom Cogan was well beaten a furlong out. He simply could not concede the weight. Will Shelley ran well for a half mile.

Scratched—33554 Pericles, 103; 33696 John C. King, 103; 33059 Bay Wonder, 111; 33754 Captain Arnold, 122; (33752) Colonnade, 108; (33754) Dick Welles, 122; 33754 Earle, 125.

Winner—Ch. c. by St. George—Levee (trained by S. C. Hildreth).
Went to post at 4:30. Off at the first break to a good start. Won driving; second easily. Lucien Appleby, under a strong ride by Coburn, outstayed Star Cotton in the last sixteenth drive. The two fought it out hard to the wire with Lucien Appleby a shade stronger at the finish. Artena appeared to have an excellent chance in the final eighth, but tired fast when the pinch came. Odnor was a keen contender for seven and one-half furlongs. Favonius was well spent when turning for home. Frangible ran well for seven furlongs.

Went to post at 5:25. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Ravensbury ran Beauty Book into submission by the time the first seven furlongs had been run and then came away with ease, winning as his rider pleased. Ben Chance was under keen punishment all through the last quarter. Hayward Hunter was well spent when turning for home. Little Daisy ran well for six furlongs. Prairie Dog appeared unable to extend himself in the going and was hopelessly beaten off all the way. Beauty Book fell just before turning into the last quarter, and was thoroughly beaten at the time.

Winner—B. c, by Ben Strome—Last Ban (trained by J. E. Gardner).
Went to post at 2:55. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. First Chord was given a lucky start, showed the way throughout and won going away. Hackensack broke slowly in the deepest going, but finished strongly. Dark Planet closed a big gap from a bad send-off. Blue Delft made up much ground and was nearly left. Mount Kisco and Knockagow tired badly in the stretch. Uranium will do much better later on and is a good looker. Bright Girl was unable to negotiate the stiff going. Kentucky Cardinal can do better.
Scratched—33801 Gentry, 112; 33746 Rigodon, 112; 33583 Jeanne Marie, 109; 32163 Tioga, 109; 33533 Ithan, 109; 33045 Rosetint, 109; 31991 Adele Harding, 109.

Winner—Ch. f, by Potomac—Golden Rod (trained by R. W. Karrick).
Went to post at 3:25. At post 5 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second handily. Lady Radnor improved her position gradually from the start and came with a rush at the end. Rossignol beat the gate and was forced out of position early, but recovered and finished fast. She was best and is rounding too, evidently. WisSENDINE outstayed Lady Holyrood in the final drive. The latter did not run her race. Neither One quit in the last furlong. Early Eve, away poorly and carried wide on the turn and losing much ground, commenced to close up like a flash when too late. Moranda held her own for a half.
Scratched—33777 Annie Grace, 113; 33606 Ondurdur, 113; (33209) Musidora, 107; 33159 Stella W., 102; 33606 Elrtineer, 102.

Winner—Ch. c, by Himyar—Felicite (trained by W. C. Daly).
Went to post at 3:50. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Himself, superbly ridden, ran an exceedingly game race in going to his especial liking and finally wore St. Finnan down in the stretch. The latter seemingly had the race well in hand and was apparently a certain winner almost throughout. Swiftmas commenced to fall back after going the first half well and having a great chance when called on, but he tired badly, evidently due to the muddy going.
Scratched—33608 Homestead, 119; (33538) Francesco, 118; 33751 Kalif, 103; 33535 Trigger, 102.

Winner—Ch. c, by Fonso—Lucasta (trained by J. H. Carr).
Went to post at 4:15. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second the same. Warté Nicht quickly took a winning lead, which he never relinquished and was never extended. Bismarck broke flatfooted and was crowded back in the first sixteenth, but ran around the field very fast and was going strongly and like a stayer at the end. Semper Vivax was outrun in the early part of the race but finished strongly. Bondage closed a big gap. Amorous quit after going the first half. Handspinner had no chance with the ride.
Scratched—33414 Napoleon, 95; 33778 Franklyn C., 95; (33801) W. R. Condon, 92; 33801 Northern Light, 92; 33729 Byronedale, 84.

Winner—B. c, by St. Blaise—Satisfaction (trained by F. Brown).
Went to post at 4:45. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Bluff, bearing out on the turns and a very difficult horse to ride, was prominent to the stretch, where he came away strongly and outclassed the field in the going. Ninonia, away poorly, closed a big gap and finished fast. Alsike tired at the end after displaying much speed and being apparently secure of second place. Arak is a good mudlark, but failed to stay because the jockey let go of his head on the backstretch. C. Rosenfeld is possibly stale and Prince Richard was practically left.
Scratched—33692 Gulden, 111; 33777 Pleasant Sail, 106; 33683 The Pride of Surrey, 96.
Bluff, show, 1 to 2. Ninonia, show, 6 to 5. Alsike, show, evens. Arak, show, 2 to 5.

Time, 261, 54, 1:24.
Winner—B. f, by Hastings—Floretta IV. (trained by J. H. Baker).
Went to post at 2:55. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Floret was outrun in the first half and swung wide at the home turn, but came with a rush in the last furlong and caught Pauline Janet and Dianora II. tiring and won in a hard drive. Winifred Norwood was wearing the winner down at the end and closed a big gap after being taken wide at all turns. Pauline Janet was tiring in the last sixteenth and Katherine R. would have been third in another stride. Dianora II. quit badly in the run home. Impressive tired after going five-eighths.
Scratched—33459 Ganesa, 105; (33815) Miss Chapman, 105; 33815 Lathrop, 106.

Overweights—Pauline Janet, 2 pounds; Katherine R., 5.
Floret, show, 1 to 2. Winifred Norwood, show, 6 to 5. Pauline Janet, show, 2 to 1. Reap, show, evens. Insolence, show, 1 to 2.

33841 SECOND RACE—5-8 Mile. Purse $250. 2-year-olds. Selling.

Winner—Ch. g, by Lazzarone—Violet (trained by J. H. Baker).
Went to post at 3:25. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Artist went to the front in the final furlong and won going away. Extol ran an impressive race and liked the going. On the Quiet was all out from setting the pace and tired when the pinch came. Blithe ran a good race and is worth remembering. Hallucination has had too much of it and needs a rest. Dr. Carr showed no great speed.
Overweights—Boittie, 2 pounds.

Artist, show, 3 to 1. Extol, show, 3 to 5. On the Quiet, show, 3 to 5. Hallucination, show, 1 to 2. Dr. Carr, 3 to 5.

33842 THIRD RACE—1 Mile. Purse $250. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.
